- Television commercials
- Photographic advertorial and editorial
- Parade and runway
- Backstage etiquette
- Model make-up
- Promotions and voice-over
- Model bag and equipment

Our workshops are extremely successful. For 22 years we have been assisting and providing top models locally, nationally and worldwide. Many international artistic crews from choreographers, stylists, make-up artists, photographers, and set, sound and fashion designers, began as students or talent with the academy and progressed through our production company, management and contacts. Recent graduates have taken part in Australian Fashion Week, international TV commercials, many national and international films, and photographic advertorial and editorial for Goldwell, KMS, CT Magazine and many national and international magazines. Our students with dance and singing abilities have been seen in national talent quests and some have been signed with record companies. Currently one of our production/event talents, who performed here in Canberra in shopping centre productions and other academy promotions, now hosts his own TV show. We are also very proud of former student models, Kylie Watson who played Shauna Bradley (Home and Away) and Lara Cox who played Anita in (Heartbreak High.) Lara completed a pilot with David E. Kelly, who is the producer of Ally McBeal and The Practice. You can see some of our students and teachers displayed on in-store posters nationally, in a Colourbond TVC, in parades at Canberra Centre, Eastlands Shopping Centre Melbourne and Westfield Miranda Sydney. Let us assess your potential!
