The Grooming and Department program pays particular attention to presentation, confidence, self-esteem, image, etiquette, speech, grooming, department and wardrobe. The Modelling component provides the strictest possible training to prepare young ladies and gentlemen for the industry and instil professionalism into any possible career path. Unfortunately not everybody can achieve the 'model look', that is demanded by clients in the fashion industry. However, everyone has an intrinsic beauty that can only be enhanced by a course of this kind.

Even if you have no desire to become a model the Personal Style and Social Skill is ideal to promote greater confidence and self-esteem.
