The Lizzie Wagner Group Pty Ltd T/A – The Lizzie Wagner Academy

Founded and lead by managing director Lizzie Wagner, The Lizzie Wagner Academy has been established for 21 years. In that time it has become a nationally and internationally recognised modelling, grooming and deportment institution, and show production company.

The Academy's training program, as well as high standards in grooming, deportment, make-up, career interview techniques, positive thinking, image update, self motivation and human relations, tuition and guidance in modelling have set it apart as one of the best training schools in the industry.

The Lizzie Wagner Academy is not only a training school for top models; it also provides tuition for the everyday person who seeks guidance in fashion, grooming, deportment, image and presentation.

The finishing school for young ladies and gentlemen has set a standard rarely seen in Australia. Staff training has become equally popular, focusing on all aspects of front line presentation.

Aside from thousands of individual students, some of the Lizzie Wagner Academy clients have included;

The Australian Information Industry Association, Australian Government Solicitors, Australian Taxation Office, National Rural Health Alliance, The Hyatt Hotel, Casino Canberra, various franchise of McDonald's Management teams, Harbourside Shopping Centre Darling Harbour, The Royal Australian Navy Cadets, The Australian Institute of Sport, The Australian National University, training for the disabled, Adolescent Day Unit, The Department of Education nationally, long-term unemployed through Centrelink, Canberra Boys Grammar, Canberra Girls Grammar, Kambah High School, St Peter's College, Saint Edmund's College, Merici College, The Down Syndrome Association, many country and city private and government schools throughout Australia and various politicians, TV stars and high profile personalities to name a few.

The Academy also trains on a national level, travelling to interstate clients and corporations regularly. Recently the academy extended its programs, workshops and makeovers throughout Asia and Europe.

The managing director of the company Lizzie Wagner has also run two highly successful modelling agencies in the region, sending many models to work nationally and internationally. The focus now is on training and operating as a placement agency, instilling the highest professional standards and placing talent with international, national and locally based agencies.

The Lizzie Wagner Academy has a long history of national and international success for our students and models, including Michael Moxey, who is the new face of Roger David, featuring in advertising campaigns Nationally; Nathan Spiteri, the new face of Calvin Klein in the United States and Hope Watson, now a model with Chadwick's in Sydney, featuring in fashion publications, advertising and runway shows. Past students and Academy models include Kylie Watson, who played Shauna Bradley in Channel 7's "Home and Away" and Lara Cox, who played Anita, in the ABC's "Heartbreak High". Many of our male models have completed modelling and associated industry assignments in Asia and Europe, others are now hosting their own TV shows or playing parts in soaps, films and international TV commercials, and many have gone into associated industries such as sound and lighting, photography and set design. David Reed has become an International make-up artist.

Over the past 21 years many Canberra models have graced the pages of high-fashion glossy magazines, international TV commercials, acting roles, and gala fashion parades.

Ms Wagner also runs a highly successful show production company of which some clients have included;

Harbourside Shopping Centre Darling Harbour, Marina Mirage, Jupiter's Casino, Queensland Investment Corporation, Canberra Centre, Castletowers, Westfield nationally, Leda and Lend Lease.

Many Lizzie Wagner productions have won major awards for creativity in visual merchandising, promotion and choreography i.e. B.O.M.A and MAXI International. Lizzie Wagner was a finalist in the Telstra Business Women's Awards in 2001 and a finalist in The Lifetime Achievement Awards in 2005.

Ms Wagner realised the potential, drive and enthusiasm of many talented artists and models in Australia and so founded the Academy to encourage and promote the richness of that Australian talent.

Now the Academy and production company are a highly competitive national and international operation.

In a highly competitive world you need to look and feel your best at all times. The Academy has assisted many clients achieve that true potential, to be the best they can in whatever area they endeavour.

We do it all, from confidence-building in small children, to assisting with presentation for that first job, to advising busy parents who has not had time to keep up, or the corporate executive requiring a new image.
